

Director, Racial Justice / Voting Rights Projects

Muslima Lewis joined the ACLU of Florida in March 2006. A former Senior Trial Attorney with the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Lewis' practice has included work in the Miami office of Akerman Senterfitt and serving as General Counsel at Alliance Entertainment Corp., and as a staff attorney for The New York Times Company. Lewis was a founding member of CARE (Community Alliance for Reform in Education) in Palm Beach County, and has been an active volunteer in the area of voting rights restoration and with the Election Protection coalition. Lewis is a past president of the Wilkie D. Ferguson, Jr. Bar Association (formerly, the Black Lawyers Association of Dade County). She received her bachelor's degree in psychology from Barnard College/Columbia University, and her J.D. from Yale Law School.
